GOLD RESOURCE CORPORATION TO RING NYSE AMEX OPENING BELL

DENVER – Tuesday January 4, 2011 – Gold Resource Corporation (GORO) (NYSE Amex: GORO) to ring the opening bell on the NYSE Amex Thursday January 13, 2011. Gold Resource Corporation is a low-cost gold producer with operations in southern Mexico.

Gold Resource Corporation's President, Mr. Jason Reid, stated, "We are pleased to have moved our trading platform to the NYSE Amex as part of the Company's logical progression as a publically traded precious metals producer. This new listing has provided greater market exposure, increased liquidity and additional long-term shareholder value."

Scott Cutler, NYSE Euronext Executive Vice President said, "We look forward to partnering with Gold Resource Corporation on NYSE Amex, the premier U.S. equities market for listing and trading small- and mid-cap growth companies, and to providing the highest levels of market quality to the company and its shareholders."

Gold Resource Corporation provides unique exposure to the gold space having recently initiated commercial production July 1, 2010. The Company is focused not only on its aggressive growth profile, but on adding low-cost ounces and its potential to distribute meaningful dividends. Using cash flow from operations the Company paid $0.03 per share each month since July 1, 2010 and recently declared its sixth Special Cash Dividend in as many months of commercial production. The sixth Special Cash Dividend increased the total dividends declared in 2010 to $0.18 per share.
